Mrs. Wayne honored by Pamplin friends

By DIANE GILLIAM

On Friday, June 11, 1982 retiring teacher, Mrs. Sarah D. Wayne, was honored with a reception in the Pamplin Elementary School cafeteria by the teachers and staff members of the school. Other guests were retired teachers who had taught with Mrs. Wayne at the Pamplin School and included Mrs. Pearle B. Lucado, Mrs. Lucille D. Webb, Mrs. Rosa M. Inge, Mrs. Mary Hendricks, and Mrs. Ruby P. Atkins. Mr. Carlton Wayne, husband of the honoree, was also present.

Superintendent of Schools, Mr. Lloyd G. Walton, traced Mrs. Wayne's career from September, 1938 through June, 1982. He stressed her deep concern and love for the students who came under her care and the influence she had on their lives after they became adults.

On behalf of the teachers and staff members, Mrs. Margaret Glover presented Mrs. Wayne with a silver casserole dish. The Pamplin Elementary PTA, represented by the president, Mrs. Diane Seibert, presented Mrs. Wayne with an engraved silver tray denoting the name and years of service she had spent in educating the young people of Appomattox County and especially those in the Pamplin area.

At the reception Mrs. Wayne was asked her feelings about her career; and she responded that it had always been her main desire to instill in her students an appreciation for reading. In attaining this goal she had read aloud at least 15 minutes a day from the Laura Ingalls Wilder series of books. Mrs. Wayne stated further that she could almost recite the books from memory. Having taught third-generation children Mrs. Wayne said that it gave her a really good feeling when students from the past asked if she still maintained this tradition.

During and after the reception Mrs. Wayne received many good wishes for a long and interesting retirement. She plans to be involved in working on various church, community and home activities.

Happiness is 4-H

By Frank Sweet
Extension Agent

One hundred and seventy 4-H'ers from Appomattox are attending 4-H Camp at Holiday Lake this week. The group will arrive back at Appomattox Primary School on Friday afternoon about 2:30 p.m. Parents are asked to please pick up their children on Friday afternoon by 4:00 p.m. from the Primary School.

* * *

Many 4-H parents will undoubtedly wish to visit during the week. We will be very crowded at 4-H Camp this week with over 240 people including Appomattox 4-H'ers, Lynchburg 4-H'ers, Teen Leaders, Adult Leaders and the normal camp staff. There simply will not be extra seating space in the dining hall, amphitheatre and pavilion for extra guests and visitors. It is also extremely important for the supervisors at 4-H Camp to know who is at the camp. With over 200 children, safety and protection is the number one concern. One parent visiting is no problem, but when parents of 100 campers visit at one time, there is no space for parking, no seating, etc. If you feel you must visit during the week, please register on the porch of the camp office and please park only in designated parking areas.

* * *

Teenage 4-H'ers are reminded that the 1982 Achievement Records are due in the Extension Office no later than Thursday, July 29. Achievement Records can help the 4-H member win trips to National 4-H Congress in Chicago or to National 4-H Conference in Washington, D. C. We will set aside Tuesday, July 13 and Wednesday, July 14 to assist any 4-H'ers who wish help on their Achievement Records.

We recently received information about the National 4-H Photo Exhibition for 1982. 4-H members may submit either a single photo or a series or photos telling a story. The picture entered should show "This is 4-H". Photos may be black and white or color and may be made from negatives or slides. Photos are due in the Extension Office by August 10. Complete details are available from the Extension Office.

State 4-H Electric Congress will be held August 16-18 at the John Marshall Hotel in Richmond. This event provides a special opportunity for senior 4-H'ers having an interest in the electric program. The State Electric Congress is sponsored by the electric power suppliers of Virginia.

Promise Land

Our freedom in Christ carries the price tag of responsibility to God, ourselves, and to others.

A church meeting will be held on Saturday, July 24, 1982 at 5:00 p.m.

We have moved back into our remodeled and repaired building. Thanks go out to all persons who helped make this possible.

Let us pray for the sick and shut-in and remember them in our prayers and deeds.

Travel up in 1981

Virginia's travel industry reached a new economic in 1981, with approximately $3.3 billion in spending by travelers, according to a study conducted by the U. S. Travel Data Center for the Virginia State Travel Service.

The report shows total travel expenditures in Virginia were an estimated $3,303,000,000, or 10 percent above the $3,009,140 spent in 1980.

Expenditures by all U. S. travelers to Appomattox amounted to an estimated $727,000. Of that amount, $8,000 was received in local and $25,000 in State tax receipts. According to the report, 21 jobs in Appomattox were generated by travelers' spending.

Despite the growth experienced by Virginia's travel industry, the percentage of increase was one-third less than during 1980. This growth also fell one percentage point behind that posted in the South and for the U. S. as a whole.

"After a partial recovery from the 1980 recession, the economy again slid downward in mid-1981," said Dr. Douglas C. Frechtling, director of the Travel Data Center in Washington, D. C. "Several sectors of the travel industry, notably airlines and commercial lodging, posted poor sales performances in both the nation and the Commonwealth.

Despite the slackening in Virginia's rate of travel growth, travel-related businesses continued to be an economic mainstay for the Commonwealth, with these businesses accounting for one-half of all retail sales in 1981 and for 12 percent of all Virginia employment. State and local governments collected $161 million in taxes from travelers - up $13 million from 1980. In addition, 83,500 jobs - 500 more jobs than in 1980 - were directly supported by travel spending.

Of the $3.3 billion spent in Virginia, out-of-state visitors contributed $1.95 billion, up from $1.78 billion in 1980; Virginians visiting throughout the Commonwealth spent $652 million, up from $562 million in 1980. In addition, Virginians preparing for out-of-state destinations spent an additional $695 million in purchases such as airline, bus and rail tickets.

"These estimates are conservative because they include only overnight trips and day trips of 100 miles or more away from home taken by U. S. residents," said Dr. Frechtling. "They do not include shorter trips or the impact of the significant numbers of Canadians and other foreign visitors who visited Virginia during 1981," he added.

The economic statistics, prepared annually by the Data Center, are based on the firm's Travel Economic Impact Model and continuing National Travel Survey as well as information supplied by the U. S. Census Bureau, Virginia Department of Taxation and other sources.

SBA, state to open business resource center in Richmond

The Virginia State Chamber of Commerce and the U. S. Small Business Administration this week signed an agreement of mutual cooperation that will establish a Small Business Resource Center (SBRC) to serve Virginia, announced M. Hawley Smith, Director of the Small Business Administration's Richmond District Office. According to Smith, and E. C. Luther, III, Executive Vice President of the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce, the agreement will result in a "far reaching, unified program of support and guidance for the Virginia business community."

Smith noted that a closer degree of cooperation between the Virginia Chamber of Commerce and the SBA will bring about a dynamic improvement in the two organizations' efforts to serve small businesses in Virginia, observing, "The combination of the various local chambers' grass roots knowledge and the centralized resources of SBA should bring a high degree of efficiency and cohesion to assistance efforts to businesses", concluded Smith.

This cooperation agreement stresses the importance of local Small Business Resource Centers as the delivery point to provide management assistance, counseling, and information to small businesses. Each local resource center will contain an SBA resource library, serve as a clearinghouse for information on SBA programs, and offer on-site SCORE (Service Corps of Retired Executives) and ACE (Active Corps of Executives) counseling services, as well as management training seminars, meetings, and orientation briefings with the local chambers.

The establishment of the Virginia SBRC is one component of a nationwide effort by the Small Business Administration to involve the private sector to improve the visibility of small business. Mr. Smith remarked that "this is in line with the Administration's efforts to use the skills and knowledge of the private sector to advance our goals." There is a consensus among SBA officials that Small Business Resource Centers, such as the one which is about to be established in Virginia, represent one of SBA's more vigorous and effective programs to mount a coordinated national and local effort to help out the nation's small business owners through decentralization of services and providing outreach to the local business community.

Mrs. James Howard Hancock

Crain, Hancock wed

The marriage of Miss Orla Luann Crain to Mr. James Howard Hancock was an occasion of Sunday afternoon, June 27, 1982, at 2 o'clock in the Rocks Baptist Church of Pamplin.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Margaret Louise Crain of Pamplin and Mr. William B. Crain of Evergreen. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Benita H. Bennett of Pamplin and the late Marshall DeFord Hancock.

The Rev. Wesley J. Williams, pastor of the church, performed the double-ring ceremony.

A beautiful selection of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Winfred H. Elder, pianist, and Miss Patricia Elder, soloist, who sang "Colour My World" and "The Wedding Prayer".

The bride was escorted by her brother, Bennie Crain, and given in marriage by her mother. She wore a formal gown of white chiffon which featured a scoop neckline with a schiffli and Venice lace capelet that lays over a fitted bodice. The gown flowed from a satin-trimmed waistline into a lovely skirt ending in a chapel train.

The matching fingertip illusion veil was embroidered in schiffliе lace enchancing its lovely Juliet cap. She carried a bouquet of Zorenia sweetheart roses, white button pompons, daisies, and baby's breath.

Miss Evelyn Crain of Pamplin was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of apricot chiffon with a ruffled capelet and a scoop neckline. She carried a bouquet of pastel colored daisies with a touch of fern.

The bridesmaids, wearing apricot gowns similiar to that of the maid of honor were Mrs. Sandra Elder of Pamplin, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Mary Grove of Appomattox, sister of the groom. They carried bouquets identical to that of the honor attendant.

Gerald A. Carwile of Pamplin, served as the groom's best man. Ushers were Douglas M. Hancock of Lynchburg, brother of the groom, and Michael A. Grove of Appomattox, brother-in-law of the groom.

The mother of the bride wore a mint green floor length gown with a matching jacket. She wore a corsage of silk gardenias. The mother of the groom wore a light aqua green floor length gown and she also wore a corsage of silk gardenias.

Mistress of ceremonies was Mrs. Nancy Williams of Pamplin. Attending the guest book was Mrs. Sue Hancock of Lynchburg.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall.

Hostesses for the reception were Mrs. Ann Spain, Mrs. Pam Crain and Mrs. Sheila Martin, all of Pamplin.

Following their wedding trip, the couple will live in Pamplin.

Parsons have reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Parsons, Kathy and Wayne of Concord were hosts to a family reunion on Sunay, July 4.

Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. William Angolia of Houston, Texas; Rick Parsons and Teresa Reynolds of Washington, D. C.; Arthur Parsons of Winston Salem, N. C.; Brenda Lisenly of Pfafftown, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. James Nance, Renee Nance, Bill Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Parsons, Jonathan and Alice all of Charlotte, N.C.; Mrs. Louise Gillispie, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Steve Scott and Justin of Laurel, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Angolia, Robert and Scott of Cottage City, Md.; Mrs. Winnie Angolia of Seat Pleasant, Md.; Mrs. Anthony Collins, Andrew and Kelly of Ocean City, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Stallings, Wendy and Kristie of Beleverde, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Wingfield of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. David Wood, Michelle Suchodowski of Madison Heights; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Moore, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Harding and Jane all of Concord.

A good time was shared by all.

Date set for wedding

The wedding of Miss Cynthia Mayberry to Mr. Roger Dale Mayberry will take place on July 31 at two o'clock in the afternoon in the Freedom Baptist Church.

Although no invitations are being sent, friends and relatives are cordially invited to attend.

Watson reunion held

A family reunion, honoring the memory of the late William Joseph Watson, and wife, the late Nannie Lucado Watson of Buckingham County, Va., was held June 26, 1982 at Pocahontas State Park in Chesterfield County, Va. It was well attended by relatives and friends from Tidewater to Lynchburg.

Renewing family ties was the order of the day, with genealogy of family lines as the theme. Three large family charts portraying the family lines of the Watson family, the Guerrant family, and the Perrow family were presented by Robert L. Watson. Research of family history, done by Nannie (Watson) Lyon and Robert L. Watson, was discussed. Old family Bibles, and records available at the State Archives, helped to establish the ancestry of many families, including the Lookadoo (Lucado) family in Virginia. Many of the reunion attendees found their ancestors among that particular group of French Protestant Huguenots that settled at Manakintowne, Va., near what is now Richmond, Va. These Huguenots, as well as many other groups, had fled from France due to extreme religious persecutions at that time during the latter half of the 1600's.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the reunion was composed of the Rev. Emmett D. Dunnevant of Glen Allen, Va.; Mrs. Julia (Watson) Spiggle of Hampton, Va.; Mrs. Juanita (Watson) Irvin of Appomattox, Va.; and Mrs. Frances (Spiggle) Nichols of Hampton, Va. Members elected to serve on the Watson Reunion Committee for the next reunion are: Mrs. Julia (Watson) Spiggle, Chairperson; Mrs. Emma "Irene" (Dunnevant) Parks; and Mrs. Bessie (Watson) Rush.

Mrs. Julia (Watson) Spiggle made recognitoin and presentations to several special attendees. Among these were Mrs. Thelma (Watson) Crews, the oldest attendee; Mrs. Bernice (Bagby) Woodson, the next oldest present; Master Steven O'Neil Watson, the youngest person present; and Mr. and Mrs. Carter Woodson, who traveled the greatest distance to attend.

Margie L. Coleman

Coleman receives degree

Margie Letticia Coleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel R. Coleman, Jr., of Breezy Knoll Farm, received her Associate Degree in Applied Science in Medical Records Technology, from Central Virginia Community College, Lynchburg, on Monday evening, June 14, 1982.

Miss Coleman, while at the college, was vice-president of the Medical Records Club.

She has accepted an Assistant Director's position of the Medical Records Department at the University of Virginia, Charlottesville.

Social notes

Ernest Brown entered the University of Virginia Hospital, Charlottesville, on Wednesday where he will undergo surgery on Friday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mott and daughter, Jennifer Courtney Mott spent the 4th of July holiday with her mother and brother, Frances and E. W. Paulette.

Doss reunion slated

The family of the late Aubrey L. Doss Sr. will hold its first annual family reunion Sunday, July 18, 1982 at 1 p.m. at the home of Mable D. Smith.

Each family bring a picnic lunch.

Festival meeting slated

There will be a meeting of the 1982 Historic Appomattox Railroad Festival Tuesday evening (July 13) at 7 p.m. in the Appomattox Town Hall.

Anyone interested in working with the Railroad Festival Committee this year, or anyone with any ideas for the festival is invited to attend.
